President Of France Arrives For U.S. Visit

Notable Reception Planned Today In Nation's Capital

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK, March 28.—(INS)—President Vincent Auriol of France and his entourage were given a roaring, colorful New York harbor welcome today on their arrival aboard the Ile De France for an 11-day State visit to the U. S. and Canada.

Auriol was received officially on behalf of New York by the city's No. One greeter, Grover Whalen, amid water-spouting fireboats and noisily tooting tugs. Air Force planes flying in formation overhead added to the scene in the sunlit harbor.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—France's President Vincent Auriol arrives in a flag-draped Washington today for a state visit aimed at renewing the historic ties between his country and the United States.

M. Auriol and his wife, son and official party are due to arrive by train from New York at 4:25 p.m. (EST). He will be greeted by President and Mrs. Truman.

Later he will attend a state dinner given by Mr. Truman and spend the night at a guest at the Blair House, temporary home of the President.

M. Auriol will be given one of the most resplendent receptions accorded a visiting dignitary since World War II.

A military procession of 5,000 men will escort him up historic Pennsylvania avenue, known as "the avenue of presidents" while fleets of fast jet fighters speed overhead.

Army, navy, marine corps and air force troops also will line the route. All will be reviewed by M. le President after he has stopped at the district building—the Washington equivalent of city hall—to receive the key to the city.

His route also will take him past the heroic bronze statue of General Lafayette, whose services in the Revolutionary War knit the

PA NEWS & OBSERVES

A truck struck and killed a doe eight miles from the city on the New Castle-Ellwood City highway this morning. It was loaded in a truck owned by Jack DeGennaro, Acorn street, who turned over the dead doe to Deputy Sheriff Thomas O'Brien. The identity of the operator of the truck which struck the doe was not known.

Clark Steece, custodian for the First Presbyterian church, reports to Pa News that he has just received his Palm Sunday program from the church, which was mailed more than ten days ago. He wonders where the late program has been hiding.

Heavy trucks in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania Turnpike along the Enon Valley-Mt. Jackson road have just about cut that section of highway out of commission. Several of the trucks have broken through the road and have gotten stuck, necessitating pulling out by wreckers, it is reported.

To make New Castle a clean city this coming summer, perhaps the installation of a few more trash cans in the downtown section would not go amiss, Pa News thinks. The ones now in service

U.S. Asks Other American Republics To Mobilize

By GEORGE DURNO

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The United States today asked the other 20 American republics today to mobilize their manpower and join in a hemispheric defense against the mortal threat of Communist aggression.

With this move, the U. S. completed its sweeping set of proposals to the inter-American conference of foreign ministers, which would call also on the 20 Latin states to establish their own price control and production systems.

Another joint undertaking was the proposed overhauling of domestic laws and regulations regarding travel, etc., "to protect and maintain national security."

Senate Probe Of 'Influence' Is Resumed

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(INS)—The senate influence probe resumes operation today with a public hearing for ex-Rep. Joseph Casey, to be questioned about a highly profitable surplus ships deal he made with the government.

Casey, a Massachusetts Democrat who is now a lawyer in Washington, set up the American Overseas Tanker Corp., which purchased five tankers from the Maritime commission and then leased them at a huge profit to the Standard Oil Company.

He testified that he invested $200,000 in the company and eventually got back $270,000.

Chairman Fulbright (D) Ark., has ordered Casey to produce the names of officers and stockholders in the company, and members of the subcommittee are expected to insist on more details of the deal.

The senators are especially interested in Casey's testimony that before he went into the deal, he got an advance ruling from a treasury official that through the formation of a Panamanian subsidiary, overseas tanker could escape the usual corporation taxes.

Report Safety Equipment Is Sighted In Search

LONDON, March 28.—(INS)—An American B-29 searching for the U. S. Globemaster missing since Friday was reported today to have sighted safety equipment last night off the Irish coast.

A U. S. Air Force spokesman said that the B-29 had observed a group of yellow objects scattered over a three-mile area of the Atlantic. This was about 70 miles southeast of a point where a seared valise was picked up on Saturday some 400 miles southwest of Ireland.

Other American and British planes employing searchlights and flares continued to search the area throughout the night without result.

The aircraft carrier Coral Sea, standing by in the area, will send out more planes during the day. Sixty-six of the Coral Sea's planes scoured the area yesterday.

The Globemaster, with 53 persons, including Gen. Paul Cullen aboard, dropped out of sight on a flight from Newfoundland to England.

Marshall Orders Limit On Korea Advance

Gen. MacArthur Told To Limit Korea Advance

New Instructions On N. Korea Advance Sent By Marshall

By WILLIAM HUTCHINSON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Republican Senators today leveled sharp criticism at the Truman administration for instructing Gen. Douglas MacArthur to limit the advance of his UN armies across the 38th Parallel only to "safeguard the security of his command."

Defense Secretary Marshall, in disclosing these new instructions, made it plain Gen. MacArthur has been ordered to keep his army from chasing the Chinese Reds to the Manchurian border and to abandon all hope of bombarding Red bases in China proper.

Dictated by State Department
Sen. Knowland (R) Calif., declared the instructions were dictated by the State Department. He angrily charged that "MacArthur was being ordered to 'mark time in front of the enemy,' and demanded the administration announce its official policy for Korea."

Sen. Cain (R) Wash., called on Secretary Marshall to state how far Gen. MacArthur can cross the 38th Parallel without "endangering the security of his troops." He joined Knowland in demanding the administration announce a formal policy on the fighting in Korea.

The new instructions to MacArthur were announced by Secretary Marshall in these words: "The question of any full ad-

Confusion On U.N. Troops Role In Korea

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, March 28.—Newly revealed friction between Gen. Douglas MacArthur's United Nations command and diplomats in Washington and Lake Success created fresh confusion in Tokyo today on the role of UN troops in Korea.

Immediate reaction to Secretary Marshall's announcement that Gen. MacArthur is not authorized to march to the Yalu river was that UN diplomats are probably revising their original directive instructing Gen. MacArthur to clear the Communist aggressors from all Korea.

Not Yet Received
So far such a revised directive has not been received in Tokyo, and staff officers pointed out that the question still is open as to whether Gen. MacArthur's army has the power to march all the way to the Yalu boundary between Korea and Manchuria.

Chinese troop movements in Korea have been mounting steadily in recent weeks and staff of

Korean Vet Is Legion Guest

Cpl. Carmen Perrone Of Bessemer Speaker

Lawrence county's first returned veteran from the Korean campaign Cpl. Carmen Perrone, of Eighth street, Bessemer, was a guest of the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, at its meeting in the Legion Home, Tuesday evening, and held the veterans of two preceding wars spellbound with his first hand narrative of the fighting in Korea.

Cpl. Perrone, a veteran of World War Two, who saw service in Italy wears the Purple Heart with three clusters, signifying the fact that he had four battle action wounds. Soldiers with 15 clusters are not uncommon among the men doing the fighting in Korea, he stated.

Conditions Terrible
Conditions in that war torn little country are almost indescribable, Cpl. Perrone stated. Mud, water, filth, stench and mountains abound there, and hand-to-hand fighting occurs in virtually every action. He described the Turks as among the most vicious in hand-to-hand

Food Subsidy Program Is Under Consideration

By FELIX COTTEN

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 28.—High administration officials disclosed today that a food subsidy program costing 1.6 billion dollars a year is under consideration in the battle to halt inflation.

The officials said the proposed plan calls for payment of subsidies sufficient to enable the office of price stabilization to clamp rigid ceiling on food, and thus erase the major factor in rising living costs.

Order Is Expected
The food subsidy program came up for consideration as the office of price stabilization prepared to issue its long-promised order establishing percentage markups for "dry groceries."

The markup order is expected tonight. It will be in three parts (Continued on Page Two)

Three-Three Are Sent To Pittsburgh

With a large number of friends and relatives on hand to wish them Godspeed, 33 men who were summoned for induction into the armed forces by selective service board No. 86, men coming from the county section outside the city of New Castle, boarded a Pennsylvania railroad train for Pittsburgh this morning. They will be inducted there and sent to a training camp for their basic training.

Representatives of the American Legion, civilian sponsoring committee, Jewish War Veterans, American Red Cross and Gideons were present to extend a farewell and to present them with gifts.

The men were addressed by the Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church, and the benediction was given by Rev. Fr. Stephen J. Kolcun, pastor of the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Catholic church.

South Koreans On East Coast Make Advance

American Forces Reported Meeting 'Heavy Resistance'

By LEE FERRERO

(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

TOKYO, March 28.—American troops were engaged in violent battle with strong Chinese Red forces above Seoul on the west Korean front tonight while South Korean units on the east coast drove at least 38 miles north of Parallel 38.

Furious daylong fighting "somewhere north of Seoul and below the parallel" was reported in a Wednesday night dispatch by International News Service War Correspondent Don A. Schanche from the suddenly exploding west front.

Schanche said American tank-infantry combat teams "smashed head-on into a Chinese regiment" which "stopped the attack cold with a wall of mortar and small arms fire and grenades."

"A grenade duel was under way at nightfall," the field dispatch related.

'Heavy Resistance'

The Eighth Army announced in its Wednesday night communique that American GIs hit "heavy resistance" north-northeast of Uijongbu which lies 11 miles north of Seoul.

It was in this area that the Americans on Tuesday had trapped three Chinese battalions some 15 miles below the parallel dividing line between South and North Korea.

Schanche's dispatch said Communist troops ranging from 50 men up to battalion strength were observed north and northeast of Seoul.

It added however that in the

Huge Road Improvement Plan Proposed In County

By JOHN PAGET

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, March 28.—(INS)—An $8,478,600 program for improving Lawrence county's roads is proposed in the 12-year program drafted by the State Highway Planning Commission.

Te. trunkline projects valued at $6,732,600 would be supplemented by an equal number of inter-community jobs worth approximately $1,746,000, according to the voluminous report submitted to the General Assembly.

Legislation to carry out the recommendations for improving Lawrence county's roads has been introduced in the assembly.

The proposed schedule for Lawrence embraces limited reconstruction and new construction by the State Highways Department.

Lawmakers are expected to act on the road improvement proposal soon inasmuch as Gov. John S. Fine has handed his biennial budget and tax recommendations to the legislature.

The legislation has been sponsored by Rep. James S. Berger (R) Potter, who headed the commission.

The Lawrence county package is part of the $1,725,936,300 statewide road improvement program which the commission would underwrite with motor license funds and local money during a 12-year period.

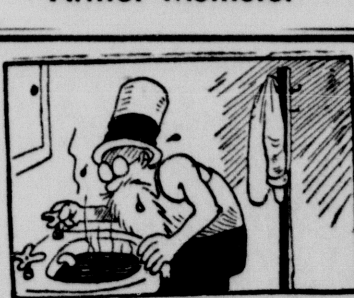

Trunkline proposals are:

Two Charged With Thefts From Pottery

Third Man Charged With Having Received Stolen Pottery

Two men are under arrest on a charge of larceny of chinaware from the Shenango pottery and a third faces a charge of receiving stolen goods, the trio having been arrested Tuesday by city police and constables.

Those charged with larceny are Harry LeRoy Gregor, 1120 Cunningham avenue, and Michael L. Orelli, 833 South Mill street.

Charged with receiving stolen goods is Ronald Levine, Neshannock township.

The charge against Gregor was made by Albert Liversage of the pottery. He also swore to the charge against Orelli was made by William Johns. The charges were sworn to before Alderman James C. Brice.

Gregor and Levine were admitted to bail. Orelli was held in jail in default of bail.

They will receive a hearing Friday afternoon.

Gregor is charged with having taken 103 pieces of Castleton china, valued at $790. Orelli is charged with having taken 104 pieces of Haviland china worth $414.

Levine is alleged to have bought several hundred dollars worth of china for $175 from a man who told him that Gregor's wife was ill, and who said Gregor had to leave town and needed money with which to pay doctor bills. He maintains, according to reports, he did not know the china had been stolen.

Shenango Pottery company officials have been investigating the alleged larceny of china for several months.

On Tuesday search warrants were sworn to and when the Gregor and Orelli homes were searched, the china was recovered.

A set of dishes given by Gregor to his sister in Erie, as a Christmas present, was recovered by Erie police, it is stated.

CONFUSION ON U.N. TROOPS ROLE IN KOREA

ficers still are working on the assumption that the Chinese will have enough power to try a counter-offensive some time around the first of May.

Gen. MacArthur long ago indicated he did not believe his forces, as now constituted and as now restricted, could afford to take the risk of moving all the way to the Yalu again. And he has said a "theoretical stalemate" is bound to develop under present military conditions.

But in recent statements Gen. MacArthur has outlined what observers believe amounts to a positive military plan to achieve perhaps a decisive political goal.

In addition, Royer said, $210,000 would be saved in production costs while $125,000 would be saved in postage.

Twelve states have authorized one plate on motor vehicles, according to Royer, while Ohio's legislature is considering similar legislation, he reported.

GEN. MacARTHUR TOLD TO LIMIT ADVANCE

vance north of the 38th Parallel is a political question as already has been stated particularly by General MacArthur.

Compelling Factor
"The compelling factor there—the dominant instruction there—is that he will proceed in accordance with the necessities to safeguard the security of his command. That dominates his actions."

Marshall then added that a drive to the Manchurian border would be too extreme. He said such an advance would imperil rather than enhance the security of MacArthur's command.

These new instructions were in direct conflict with the United Nations directive passed last October by the General Assembly, when it voted 47 to 5 in favor of a resolution that indirectly approved crossing of the 38th Parallel by MacArthur.

One of the provisions of that resolution stated that stability should be restored throughout all Korea by "all appropriate steps."

Differs Sharply
Marshall's statement also differed sharply from one made by President Truman at his February 15th news conference. Mr. Truman said he had no intention of interfering with General MacArthur.

Asked whether the UN forces would cross the 38th Parallel, the chief executive replied that it was a military matter, that the president of the United States never has interfered with military commanders in the field and had no intention of starting now.

Military circles buzzed with reports that MacArthur cannot halt at the 38th Parallel and "safeguard" the security of his command. It was pointed out that the 38th Parallel is composed largely of flat land and offers few decent defensive positions.

Most of the top brass in Washington would move many miles north, if they were holding MacArthur's command, and establish a defensive line running from Wonsan on the east coast to Chinnampo on the Yellow sea coast. This line would include the North Korean capital of Pyongyang. It can be readily fortified and defended.

commend an extension of 60 days. Two of the five members, Chairman Kefauver (D) Tenn., and Sen. Hunt (D) Wyo., have suggested it be succeeded by a permanent commission.

But the other members, Republican Senators Tobey, N. H., and Wiley (W.), and Democratic Sen. O'Connor (D) Md., want an extension. Kefauver has said that while he expects to step out of the group, he will not vote against extension. Tobey said that he intended to introduce an extension resolution on the senate floor, and the rules committee is almost certain to discuss the matter in its regular Wednesday meeting.

The Reds are past masters at infiltration, he said. He stated that the men in battle know that the forces confronting them are enemies, and that the ones in their rear are supposed to be South Koreans, but that it does not always hold true as many brave men have found out when it was too late.

Cpl. Perrone saw action in Italy in World War Two, but he stated that the fighting in Korea is worse than anything he had ever seen in Italy, and it was supposed to have been pretty tough.

Following his talk, he answered a number of questions from members of the post.

against treason, sedition and other subversive activities directed from without."

Must Make Sacrifices
In short, the U. S. appealed that its neighbors and hemispheric partners make equal sacrifices in meeting the menace of "international Communist imperialism."

The U. S. proposal on hemispheric defense would have each country call up enough armed forces to police our Atlantic and Pacific borders.

The Latin foreign ministers viewed the sweeping program with mixed emotions and fought for guarantees they will not again suffer the vast inflation that followed World War II.

Secretary of State Acheson and his aides argued that if the various countries would adopt price controls and sacrifice non-essentials, the danger of inflation would be averted.

In the military field, the Latin powers probably will demand that the U. S. furnish the ships, planes and guns necessary to defend the ocean borders. They will furnish the manpower.

It was questionable how far the Washington government could go in supplying such equipment under new legislation. An $80,000,000 item was earmarked recently for Latin American aid, but this amount obviously would not go far.

During the last war, some 140,000 U. S. troops were tied down guaranteeing strategic Latin American positions.

returned to the committee. They will be reported to the floor again Monday. All but the income bill are expected to sail through without delay.

Heavy Fire Probable
But if preview comments of many legislators are an indication, the income tax will come under heavy fire from both Republicans and Democrats.

The levy would bite one-half of one per cent from the pay of every Pennsylvania wage earner to amass $119,000,000 to help run the state for the next two years starting June 1.

Rep. Wrayburn B. Hall, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, sponsored the income bill. The corporate income levy is expected to yield $220,000,000. In all, the tax package would produce most of the $853,214,000 general fund recommendations.

The remainder of the billion-dollar budget will be picked up from permanent taxes plus fuel taxes and motor licenses.

Excluded from taxation are (1) proceeds from life, accident, and health insurance, including workmen's compensation (2) gifts, legacies and devises (3) stock dividends (4) income received by religious and charitable organizations (5) veterans pensions and bonuses and the pay of servicemen in combat zones and (7) public assistance and social security payments.

The taxpayer may pay either on a calendar year with an April 15 deadline or fiscal year basis.

Were Resistance Fighters
While M. Auriol does not have exactly the same powers of the president of the U. S., he holds a natural leadership established during the war when he, his wife, and his son as well, were active resistance fighters.

M. Auriol escaped detection by the Germans for some time by losing 50 pounds and the growth of a beard, now clipped.

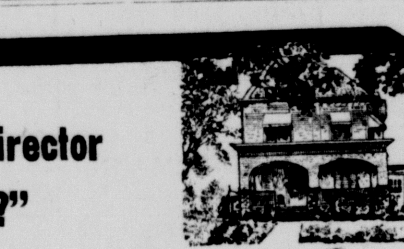

It has been made apparent that M. Auriol will aim at meeting charges that France no longer has the will to resist and arguments that arms should not be given to continental Europe.

The French president is expected to stress his position at talks before a joint session of Congress and at the National Press Club.

MR. AND MRS. KEYES' 25th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Keyes of 128 North Walnut street were honored on their silver (25th) wedding anniversary when Mrs. Harry Hagerty, also of North Walnut street, entertained in her home.

A full-course turkey dinner was served by the hostess, with aides being Mrs. Margaret Foulz and Mrs. Raymond Moore, both of New Castle. A two-tiered wedding cake graced the table, arranged between white tapers and silver holders, and the guests were served by candlelight.

After the dinner the guests held an open reception at a local hall. Mr. and Mrs. Keyes, who observed their anniversary on Saturday, March 24, are the parents of four children, all of New Castle. They are: Fred, Brady and Ralph Keyes and Mrs. Dale (Kitty) Mielke. They presented their parents with a lovely silver service and many other attractive gifts were received by the honored couple. The honored guests were married in New Castle.

LOCAL QUOTA CLUB ELECTS DELEGATES

A special business session highlighted the meeting of the New Castle Quota club when the members gathered at The Castleton hotel. Preceding the meeting a delicious dinner was enjoyed by the group.

Later in the evening Miss Neva Moore and Mrs. J. C. Williams were elected as delegates to the district meeting on April 8.

Complete plans for the next meeting will be disclosed later.

ST. JOHN'S SOCIETY PLANS ACTIVITIES

A season of activity for the spring months was planned by the Women's Missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church when the organization met in the church Tuesday evening. Mrs. A. J. Gavroy as leader presented a booklet, "Facts on Argentina", to each member, and discussion was based upon the work of the United Lutheran church in that country.

During the business meeting plans were made for the missionary convention of the West Conference, which will be held in Monaca on April 25. Delegates appointed are Mrs. Harry Delin, Mrs. Lee Lutz, Mrs. Luther Moore and Mrs. George Woodring. A special project of "Life and In Memoriam Memberships" is being stressed and will be presented at the convention. Tentative plans were announced for the annual roll call of the Lutheran Service society of western Pennsylvania.

A pleasant social feature of the evening was arranged by Miss Stella Diefenderfer in honor of the members who have birthdays during the month of March and have given an outstanding service to missionary endeavor for a period of years.

Next meeting will be conducted in the church April 24.

HADASSAH CHAPTER PROGRAM THURSDAY

New Castle chapter of Hadassah will have their business meeting and program Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Tifereth Israel synagogue.

President Mrs. Irving Nixon will preside during business. Program chairman Mrs. Pierson Caplan will have charge of a most interesting program afterwards.

A film, "Take the Young to Thee", will be shown to the assembly. The film is a story of Meier Shifayah—a children's village in Israel, that is sponsored by the Hadassah chapter.

A delightful cantata will be performed after the film. This is directed by Mrs. Gus Slovinsky, with the children of the Tifereth Israel religious school participating. Mrs. Ted Marlin, hospitality chairman, will be in charge of the social period.

WELCOME WAGON HAS ENJOYABLE PARTY

Members of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers' club had a pleasant social meeting at The Castleton hotel on Tuesday evening.

A variety of games was enjoyed during the evening, with several prizes awarded to the winners. Delicious refreshments were later served to the group.

Mrs. Dean Steed was chairlady of the occasion, with aides including Mrs. Kathryn Davis and Mrs. Cecelia Morlarity. The next regular meeting of the club will be held on April 23.

HIGGINS-RASEY LOVELY RITE

Flamingo-colored chiffon fashioned the charming bridal costume worn by Miss Margaret Evelyn Higgins, daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Higgins, 433 Winter avenue, when she exchanged solemn wedding vows with Charles Kenneth Rasey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Rasey of 435 Winter avenue. Highland U. P. church was the setting for the double ring ceremony on Saturday evening, March 24, at 7:30 o'clock with Dr. J. Calvin Rose officiating by candlelight before an altar decorated for the occasion with palms, lilies and hyacinths.

The bride gown was accented with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of white gardenias and carnations. The custom of something old, new, borrowed and blue was adhered to by the bride.

Miss Betty Jean Higgins attended her sister as maid of honor, dressed in an aqua-colored silk frock fashioned with a deep lace yoke and matching mitts. Other accessories were brown and she wore a shoulder corsage of yellow carnations and snapdragons.

James Cummings, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man and Donald L. Higgins, brother of the bride, served as usher.

Miss Alene McCormick, a close friend of the bride, played appropriate nuptial music preceding the ceremony. Miss Karna Drake, soloist, pleased with the selections "O Promise Me", "Through the Years" and, during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer".

The congratulatory period and reception was held in the church parlor with 35 guests in attendance. The bride's table was attractive with a bouquet of yellow daffodils and snapdragons, blanketed by two tall tapers. The bride's two aunts, Miss Agnes Calvin and Mrs. Leslie Calvin, poured and the brides were Mrs. Lloyd McCormick, Mrs. Howard Boalick, Mrs. William Nelson and Mrs. Harold Hartzell.

The couple later departed for a short wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest. They will be "at home" in their newly furnished apartment at 435 Winter avenue after March 28.

Mrs. Rasey is an alumna of New Castle high school with the class of 1949. She is employed with the Bell Telephone company.

Mr. Rasey attended the New Castle high school and completed three years' training in the U. S. Navy. At the present time he is employed by the Johnson Bronze company.

SIXTIETH WEDDING EVENT OBSERVED

The 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gilmore was observed March 19 at their Enon Valley home.

A delicious dinner was served at 12:30 p. m. to 21 guests. The beautifully appointed table was decorated with spring flowers and a large wedding cake, the gift of their friend and neighbor, Mrs. Edwin Brandt.

Lovely flowers were used to decorate the large living room, where "open house" was held from 2:30 to 5 p. m. Weather conditions prevented the attendance of many distant relatives and friends but 70 guests were welcomed during the reception hours.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, with Mrs. Willard K. George pouring. Aides in serving were Mrs. Edwin Brandt, Mrs. W. A. Jenkins, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. James Nesbitt, Louise and Velma Jeanne Nesbitt and Virginia Brandt.

Many beautiful gifts, cards and letters were received by the couple, for which Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore thank their near and distant friends.

DINNER CLUB AT BRATSCHIE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bratschie welcomed members of the Six O'Clock Dinner club into their home on Laurel boulevard Tuesday evening. The hostess served a delicious dinner, assisted by Mrs. John Morgan and Mrs. Ann Johnson. An arrangement of lovely tulips and spring flowers graced the table for the occasion.

Bridge was the later diversion, with high score prizes won by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sipe. Plans were made for a dessert-bridge to be held at the Elder home in Volant on April 3. Mrs. Blanche Patterson was feted with a birthday shower during the evening.

On April 10 the club will have a regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Westlake, Edgewood avenue.

THINK IT OVER

Fire loss statistics for the nation, measured in dollars, stagger the imagination. In 1950 losses totaled upward of three quarters of a billion dollars. During this past January alone they ran over $68,000,000.

These figures are beyond the comprehension of most of us. However they do indicate one thing with terrible certainty as far as the individual is concerned. His likelihood of having an unfortunate or tragic experience with fire is all too probable. Hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property cannot go up in smoke year after year, even in a country the size of the United States, without many individuals being touched intimately by loss from fire at sometime in their lives.

When you come in contact with fire prevention activities in your community don't make the mistake of thinking they are for the other fellow. They are meant for you because it is through the carelessness of individuals that fire wreaks its havoc. And as sure as you are reading these words if you do not heed homely precautionary advice to check the hazards in your home or business—flues, wiring, rubbish, furnaces, closets and basements—it is a safe bet that one of these days you will add your bit to the annual bonfire of American property. It may be your own funeral pyre as well. Think it over.

FACULTY ANXIETY

What effect the draft and possible universal military service and training will have on its own ranks was of deep concern to the American Association of University Professors in convention in Cincinnati. It asked economies by administration and faculty to the greatest extent without resorting to the reduction of faculty personnel.

But since for several years to come undergraduate population is certain to be greatly diminished, the association had to take cognizance of the fact that colleges and universities cannot maintain full faculties. By resolution it said:

"If reduction of faculty personnel is unavoidable, it should be confined to faculty members who have not acquired tenure status."

To the extent that faculty cuts are necessary, it is presumptive that they will be chiefly among instructors, not those who have acquired professorial status. Naturally, institutions of higher learning do not want permanently to sever relationships with the men and women they have selected to teach undergraduates, and will willingly accord leaves of absence. But some college teachers must for the time being be cut off from the payrolls.

If the government or industry can absorb those who do not go into the armed services, well and good. Others must find places for themselves, some in secondary schools, though those whose field is in the natural sciences should not find great difficulty in obtaining employment in industry.

The question of how many faculty members must be dispensed with and whom they shall be is a headache for boards of trustees the country over.

BRITONS TO MIGRATE?

Danger of a large-scale economic war is the motive of a proposal for evacuating 20,000,000 Britons from Great Britain to commonwealth countries.

This proposal has been made in all seriousness to Prime Minister Attlee by the Migration Council, composed of influential Britons including members of Parliament. Such a wide migration would involve 40 per cent of the estimated British population of 50,519,000. At present some 1,700 to 1,800 persons weekly are going to Australia with government encouragement.

The justification for this gigantic new plan is threefold: first, to save possibly millions of Britons in a third world war; second, to ease the strain on a country "demonstrably overpopulated" with industry over-centralized; third, to aid the European-settled dominions, lacking in population and with undeveloped resources. That means Canada, Australia and New Zealand principally.

It is asserted a poll has revealed that 35 per cent of the population of Britain would be willing to move abroad under advantageous circumstances.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y., JOURNAL: "Every line of business has been competition these days. . . Competition is the backbone of the private enterprise system."

BISHOPVILLE, S.C., MESSENGER: "Legislators, should not only preach economy but should practice it. They might begin right at home in their own counties."

OSKALOOSA, IOWA, DAILY HERALD: "Some of those who are urging price and other controls as an emergency measure, hope to make them a permanent part of our economic system. Should that happen, government would be absolute master of the economy—and regimentation of industry and individuals would be here to stay."

LIBERAL, KANSAS, DAILY TIMES: "If we had been paying for government expenditures as we go in the past, there would be no need at this time for control for the simple fact that our money would be stable. So today we have inflation at a point where we can buy only half as many weapons with the same money as we did in 1945."

ROCKDALE, PA., HERALD: "At a time when Communism and Fascism are so widely pronounced, let us loudly stress Americanism."

Skepticism On Argentina's Claim

Announcement by President Juan D. Peron that Argentina has carried out some spectacular new experiment in atomic energy bewildered world capitals today and observers sought to find some link between it and meeting of western hemisphere nations in Washington.

There was still considerable skepticism as to whether Argentina actually has carried out an atomic fission by some method far cheaper in its results than that used by the United States.

And in general, the feeling was that Peron had timed his announcement specifically before the Washington conference as presumed proof that Argentina is not dependent upon the United States for anything.

Linked To Campaign

The claim that a little-known Austrian scientist named Donald Richter brought off an atomic coup on an isolated island in the picturesque Argentine countryside near the Chilean border seems curiously linked to Peron's anti-American campaign and his confiscation of the independent newspaper La Prensa.

He has based the publication's seizure by a congressional committee on the allegation that La Prensa had become a tool of Wall Street.

Like his fellow-dictators, Adolf Hitler and Joseph Stalin, Peron has long made a whipping-boy of American capitalism and the so-called "stirless" poor of Argentina that have been taught to loathe American capitalism and its alleged grip of gold on the western hemisphere.

Peron's seizure of La Prensa at this particular time places him somewhat on the defense so far as the inter-American conference is concerned.

Extremely Sensitive

He would rather not have it discussed. Hypolito Jesus Paz, already has shown himself to be extremely sensitive on the matter.

Yet the issue seems certain to arise. The United States has made known its own disavowal of the action and other Pan American countries, anxious to attain real democracy and real friendship with the U. S., also have expressed their indignation.

Thus it seems that Peron is attempting to emphasize the complete independence of Argentina in any effort to link its industries and resources with the defense program of the United States.

The situation in Argentina to day is a particularly questionable one.

There is no doubt of Peron's power, and no question of the popularity of his wife. Evita with the working classes, to which she distributes cash largesse and social benefits with a lavish hand.

Army and Police Controls

But there is no doubt either of the strict army and police controls by which the Perons maintain their position and history shows that terrorism actually rests upon a shaky foundation at best.

It is certain that the Washington conference will stand or fall on the attitude of Argentina.

Suppression of La Prensa and a growing public knowledge of Peron's strong-arm methods have done much to hurt Argentina's prestige.

Firm proof of Argentina's sincerity and willingness to work 100 per cent with the United States in defense against communism or any other aggressive expansion would do much to restore it.

But this Peron can hardly do and keep in line with the policies he has staked out.

Identifies Government

He has coined the word "justicialism" to identify his form of government. This he defines as a middle course between communism and capitalism. In opposing both, he has had no recourse but to draw upon the teachings of Hitler and Mussolini, and with such a governmental system, there is no middle ground of collaboration with true democracy.

Close investigation indicates that Peron's atomic experiments are no very great shakes.

From what can be learned, they do little more at best than imitate steps taken by American atomic scientists in the early stages which led to Oak Ridge and Los Alamos.

But propagandistically, the Peron claims are at least of passing importance. Argentina, which claims it can do anything United States can do and do better, simply is repeating the process of self-glorification that thus far at least has paid dividends to Juan D. and Evita Peron.

ANNUAL MEETING

At every annual meeting, when the records have been read, the president, or some one, tells of tasks that lie ahead.

"We are proud of our achievement," they are told who sit it through.

"We exceeded last year's quota, but there still is more to do!"

"We've given out the prizes and the bonuses are paid.

But we won't succeed tomorrow with the record we have made.

There's a harder goal before us."

"Oh, so oft I've heard the speech!"

"And starting with the morning we must work that goal to reach."

That's the way it goes, young fellow. It's truth you ought to know.

Beyond what's been accomplished always farther you must go.

The past is closed forever. When the annual meeting's done they will ask you to do better through the year that's just begun.

Result Of Television Probe Drama?

WASHINGTON, March 28 — Whether the television drama of the Kefauver hearings is good or bad for public morality will be debated for a long time to come. But one element displayed should not be ignored.

The victim in the witness chair bears some resemblance to the unfortunate wrongdoer put in the pillory in puritan New England. The television audience of 20 millions or more is a fantastic extension of the village green. We sit snugly in our comfortable easy chairs and feel scorn and righteous indignation at the lawbreaker pinioned before the committee.

Important Difference

There is an important difference, however, between the puritan with his head and hands locked in the stocks and the gambler or gangster squirming under the television lights. The puritan had been found guilty by a process of law. He had been given at least a semblance of a trial.

The congressional hearing is more and more usurping the function of the courts. It is an intrusion by Congress on the judicial branch of our tripartite government.

There are many reasons why this should be happening. Perhaps the chief one is the breakdown of law enforcement at the local level in one community after another. What we are seeing is a repetition of the end of the prohibition era, when the heads of the big bootleg rings were put in prison for failure to pay income tax on their fabulous and criminal spoils.

Doubt Is Growing

A doubt is beginning to grow about the effectiveness of law enforcement at the national level. That is especially true in the field of income tax enforcement, as was pointed up by a report of the Kefauver committee showing that racketeers and gamblers were being allowed to get away with very crude reporting of their huge incomes.

To dredge these weird fish out of the slime and hold them up to public opprobrium before a national television audience may very well contribute to public morality. It shows the cancerous evil that feeds on public indifference and political apathy.

Nevertheless a danger is inherent in the approach of prosecution by public investigation. It violates certain fundamentals of the American system. Even a "Greasy Thumb" Guzik has rights. If those rights are violated, then the way is opened to abrogate other rights of other individuals less vulnerable to attack.

Confusion Illustrated

The confusion over ends and means is illustrated by the clamor for punishment when two witnesses directly contradict each other in the course of a hearing. This has happened repeatedly, not only before the Kefauver committee but before other Senate investigating groups.

Here, of course, is where the courts come in. To most listeners it seems perfectly obvious that perjury has been committed. But under American law it is far from easy to obtain a conviction for that crime.

When Anna Rosenberg's appointment to be assistant secretary of defense came before the Senate Armed Services Committee, witnesses testified who appeared to be part of an organized smear directed against Mrs. Rosenberg. Members of the committee, both Republicans and Democrats, were hooked and angry. They told reporters they were convinced perjury had been committed.

For more than a month the Department of Justice has had the Rosenberg case before a Federal Grand Jury here in Washington. At least 25 witnesses have been heard. The FBI has been working intensively to round up new evidence. Yet many more witnesses (Continued on Page Six)

HORSES' TEETH

Horsemen always look into a horse's mouth when they want to size it up.

Cattle buyers do the same thing. Perhaps it is a good thing for a person to look into his own mouth occasionally.

Good teeth are more to be desired than great riches. It seems to be nearly impossible to prevent cavities but it is easy enough to get them filled.

Mom takes a look at Butch's teeth every day and his ears too. If she sees a little brown spot she hustles him to the dentist.

Dentists weren't so plentiful when Granddad was a boy. That is one reason why his teeth are in his pocket part time.

Folks Of Fame

Lloyd C. Douglas was born in Columbia City, Ind., August 27, 1877, and was ordained in the Lutheran ministry in 1903. He served as minister in several churches and was also director of religious work at the University of Illinois. In 1920 his first book was published—Wanted—A Congregation, then The Minister's Everyday Life. His Magnificent Obsession was not only a best seller book, but was made into a successful motion picture. Forgive Us Our Trespasses, Precious Jeopardy, Green Light, White Banners, Disputed Passage, Doctor Hudson's Secret Journal were other novels of his. His last work, The Robe and The Big Fisherman, the latter published in 1948. He died February 13, 1951.

Voice Of Discouragement?

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—One of my unfondlest schoolboy memories attaches to a teacher who used to glare at the class numbskull and sarcastically exclaim: "When you die, they'll write on your tombstone: 'He couldn't do it!'"—and almost daily we now hear the Federal government using the same language to 153 million Americans.

Latest example of the defeatist pedagogy lies in Administration arguments for preserving the preposterous RFC. The arguments, in summary, declare that without this and other Federal lending agencies, American business would dry up for lack of capital and would wither on the vine. The great government of this great nation is saying to its businessmen, its farmers, its workers and its bankers: "The depression of 1929 clearly proved—You couldn't do it. Without the aid, advice and control of the Federal bureaucracy, you cannot survive. You do not have the initiative or the intelligence to solve these great problems, and there is a tombstone already carved with the name of Free Enterprise and with this epitaph: 'You couldn't do it!'"

Conspiracy Of Discouragement

This conspiracy of discouragement, as any wide-awake reporter can see, is the central theme of the Fair Deal philosophy. It accounts for very nearly the whole program, domestic and foreign. People are told by their political leaders that there is no hope of a self-sufficient old age. Therefore, the Social Security Administration. They are told that they cannot hope to pay the doctor and the hospital in case of illness. Therefore, let us have Federalized medical care. They are told that the ancient laws of supply and demand are no longer operative in agriculture. Therefore, farm subsidies are imperative. They are told that private banks are monsters, and parsimonious monsters at that, which will no longer lay out risk capital and can no longer give fair judgment between crackpot projects and sound business ventures. Therefore, let us have Federal corporations to finance or to subsidize American enterprise . . . everything from peanuts to houses.

Same Philosophy Dominates

The very same philosophy of can't-be-done has come to dominate our relation with friendly foreign powers. Nowhere, east or west, is there a pro-American nation on whom we have failed to lavish this deadening paternalism. Every bit of economic aid we send, every offer of military alliance we put forward, is predicated on the principal of "You can't do it on your own. You are too stupid, too weak, too badly beat-up from past depressions and past wars to work out your own salvation."

So while we are in a mood to investigate practically everything, why not an investigation of this insidious plot against self-confidence?

Anywhere we begin will serve the purpose. There is no reason why Senator Fulbright's proposed probe of governmental "ethics" should not include this bigger subject. What, for example, is behind the arguments that this country actually needs, the RFC? There is, as Senator Fulbright surely knows, a sum of nearly $4 billion which trust companies and insurance firms are handling for private pension funds. Not long ago the president of a mammoth New York insurance company was in town urging Senators to liberalize the codes and laws which govern investment capital. This insurance magnate assured Senators that there was enough tied-up capital around the country to take care of thousands of small enterprises which now get their financing from the government.

Who Is Behind Effort?

Who, then, is behind this effort to retain RFC? From where does this you-can't-do-it propaganda originate?

Not from the business world itself, that much is certain. There are half a dozen research groups in Washington which can factually prove the needlessness of RFC and several other Federal left-overs from the depression days. But somebody—some powerful inside clique of Creeping Socialists—is at work on the American public and on weak-minded Senators to "prove" a need that simply does not exist.

The right sort of investigation, starting with RFC, could be extended to examine the whole poisonous philosophy which preaches the futility of individual and even national self-reliance. When an authoritative voice keeps saying, "You can't do it," pretty soon you're almost convinced that you can't. Well, who's behind that voice of discouragement in America today?

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Sometimes I wish that I could blast away at people and things as hotly and forcefully as some of my illustrious colleagues do.

But somehow I don't seem to be able to get away from the idea that life is really a very pleasant journey and that much more fun can be gotten out of it by optimism than by pessimism.

I realize, of course, that for reader interest criticism and attack are much more profitable than expressions of confidence and faith and hope.

But it is difficult to change one's nature—so I shall just have to go on being reasonably satisfied with life as it is and trying to have you share my contentment and peace of mind.

Have you ever noticed how quickly a building that has taken months to erect can be wrecked in a few days?

That may be the reason why there are so many new viewings, with-alarm than harbingers-of-cheer.

It is so much easier to wreck a character than to build one.

Today is a lovely Spring day. But, for no reason at all, I feel grouchy as can be.

So my impulse was to write a column ridiculing the drop in the price of soap by one cent a bar, while prices in general are soaring.

Then I wanted to knock the Government for its hypocrisy—government-knocking being one of the most popular pastimes of today.

I felt like raising Cain with a woman who had written me a nasty letter because I recently said that it is no sin to get some fun out of life.

But then something that Harry Lauder, the great Scottish comedian, had sung after the first World War, came to my mind.

One verse went: "Don't let us sing of the war any more, just let us sing of love."

And I remembered how sick and tired people had become of war and war news and talk of death and disaster.

I remembered how they had welcomed Harry Lauder, how they applauded and cheered his gaiety, his laughter, his good cheer.

So, I thought, oh, to the devil with criticizing and carping. I went out into the garden where the first crocuses were peeking their little heads through the salt hay that is still covering the flower beds and where the forsythia and the daffodils are once again telling the story of God's annual resurrection.

Shamus, my favorite mutt, was lying in the sun, taking his afternoon nap with not a worry in the world.

Kids, completely unaware of the fact that there is such a thing as War, were playing and having a heck of a time.

Those kids, I thought, would still be on this earth long after I have been put under it.

Then I looked at the advertisements in the newspapers. Gay spring clothes, Easter millinery, Perfumes with the most wonderful names. Luscious steaks and ham—expensive, to be sure but luscious just the same.

And, as I sat down at my typewriter, I suddenly realized that a very seemingly IMPORTANT thing are so completely unimportant, and that is the apparently LITTLE things that give testimony that not little I, but life itself, is eternal.

State Police Say:

Never take safety or granted. Cross at intersections within the crosswalks. Wait for the green light or the policeman's whistle. Be alert for the inconsiderate driver making a right turn, or the reckless one trying to beat the light. On open highways allow for the speed of approaching cars. Wherever you cross, look both ways. One step can be fatal.

CHOOSE ACCESSORIES TO HIGHLIGHT COSTUME

Simplicity is the keynote in styling your costume. With simple lines you can use elaborate accessories.

Rightly chosen accessories serve a real purpose. They can emphasize lines by shortening or heightening, and make you appear smaller or larger, whichever you want to achieve. Accessories also can dramatize color and accentuate details.

When buying accessories, select those which point up your good features and minimize your poor ones. If your feet are large, you will want to wear simple dark shoes instead of multi-colored sandals.

Keep your accessories in harmony with each other and with the style of your costume. This guards against high-heeled pumps worn with slacks or lace gloves with a tweed suit. However, this is not contrary to the idea of a basic dress or suit that may be either tailored or dressy, depending upon the accessories worn with it.

When in doubt about using another accessory, leave it off. It is better to be underdressed than overdressed. A few good accessories are a better investment than many inexpensive ones. When funds are low, you will be wise to buy one good pair of basic shoes and a matching bag that may be worn with almost everything in your wardrobe.

Manners For Adolescent Son

"My adolescent son is totally lacking in poise and graciousness, especially when I have a visitor. His main idea seems to be that he escape as soon as possible. Can you suggest any remedy for this self-consciousness? Or is it something every mother must bear?"

Answer: Naturally, we must expect a certain amount of self-consciousness from adolescents, especially boys. They have arrived at that uncomfortable stage when they are neither child nor man.

After the growing pains are over and Johnny realizes his "importance" to the opposite sex, very few mothers have to worry about his appearance or his poise. But in the meantime, do all in your power to make Johnny forget his cracked voice, his too long arms and legs sprouting out of his "fast-shrinking" clothes, his fuzzy chin. He knows he's going through a metamorphosis and is only irritated by adults calling attention to it.

Teach him to be polite at all times. If he's rude, by all means give him a severe reprimand. But examine your own conscience first to ascertain if you are at fault.

Instruct your son to greet your visitors cordially, stay for a brief period and then if he chooses ask to be excused. If your visitor makes untactful remarks about Johnny's gawky appearance, change the subject after passing over it with some such remark as "well, you know, his grandfather was a six-footer and Johnny seems to be taking after him."

Question: Please tell me whether it is correct at any engagement party for everyone to bring only personal gifts for the bride-to-be, or whether the family and relatives of the future bride and groom may bring gifts for the household.

Answer: It is usual to give the bride something for her trousseau. Wedding gifts are usually household items.

Farm Roundup

Plenty Of Gas
Seen For Farms

Agriculture Dept.
Officials Optimistic;
Other Farm News

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(INS)—Agriculture officials say there will be plenty of gasoline to keep farms running full blast this crop year.

Although farmers may be faced with occasional shortages of machinery and parts and some kinds of fertilizer, officials feel sure there will be no cut-backs on petroleum products.

This bit of advice comes in the face of a forecast that farmers will use more than 10 per cent more petroleum products this year than in 1950 to meet mobilization demands.

Officials say that the farmers have used 10 per cent more petroleum products each year since 1947 than the year before. With the push for another record volume of crops this year, farmers are expected to use even more of these products.

In 1950, farmers used nine billion, 800 million gallons of petroleum fuels, including gasoline, kerosene and liquid petroleum gas. They used about 15 per cent of the total amount consumed in the nation in 1950 for all purposes.

The Production and Marketing Administration reports that exports of U. S. grains and grain products from July through February totaled about 329 million bushels, compared with 358 million during a like period a year ago.

The agriculture department reports that 85 per cent of Norway's smoking needs are filled with U. S. tobacco.

Although U. S. tobacco products are expected to keep this favored position in Norway, officials fear that unless prices decline somewhat, Norway will have to look elsewhere.

In 1950, Norway imported almost seven million pounds of U. S. tobacco, compared with eight million pounds in 1949 and the prewar average of five million pounds.

Need Direct Corroboration
To make a perjury case witness must be found who will testify to having heard the falsehood uttered. To make a really strong case that will convince a jury a motive for willful perjury should be established. Under these circumstances the likelihood of convicting witnesses who contradicted each other before the Kefauver committee seems remote.

The Kefauver investigation has already proved its usefulness in at least one respect, and that is to stir greater activity in doubtful income tax cases. But if it is to be truly effective, then the communities where the corruption and the crime have been exposed must be stirred to root it out. This applies especially to the great urban centers, where crime seems to be so closely linked to politics.

The federal government should not become an oversized policeman on the national morals beat. There is a lot that can be done to clean house here. But the moral climate in the country as a whole can be changed only if there is a will to change it out where the people live and work—and gamble.

Assemblyman White Gives City Manager Plan Report

General Assemblyman Robert M. White today answers a number of questions that have been asked him concerning the possibility of a city manager bill for third class cities.

His statement follows.

"Many citizens of our city have asked me to investigate the merits of any bill which would allow cities of the third class, such as New Castle, to adopt the City Manager Plan of government.

"I have in my possession a draft of the bill which was introduced at the last session of the General Assembly. It passed the House but was defeated in the Senate. This bill is known as an enabling act, that is, a city is free to decide for itself whether it wants the plan or not.

"If this bill were the law today the city of New Castle could adopt the City Manager Plan only after the majority of the registered voters of our city voted in its favor at an election called by the county commissioners.

"The commissioners could call such an election if the city council passed a resolution requesting the election OR if a petition signed by enough registered voters to equal 2 per cent of the 1950 census of our city requested it. (This would amount to approximately 900 signatures). The election would take place at the next regular election of public officers. Or a special election could be called in the odd numbered years and it would take place on the 3rd Tuesday of May.

"Once the plan is adopted by the voters it would go into effect on the 1st Monday of January following the election. Officials in office at the time, under our present status of government, would continue in office until their terms expire unless they sooner resign.

"At the next municipal election, following the adoption of the City Manager Plan, four councilmen are elected. The two candidates with the highest number of votes will serve for four year terms and the next two highest will serve two year terms. A mayor will also be elected to serve for four years. Those who were members of the council under the old plan and whose terms have not yet expired may be hired to perform administrative duties under the City Manager Plan but they will continue at their former salaries. The new councilmen and the mayor will receive no more than $600 a year and no more than $25 per meeting.

"A City Manager will be appointed by the new council and mayor and he will have complete supervision over all administrative duties and shall make all appointments except as to those employees who are members of the city civil service boards. He will have authority to dismiss all appointees upon notice and after an opportunity for hearing is given them before the council. The city manager shall receive such compensation as the council decides and he need not be a resident of the city.

"The mayor will be the president of the city council but he will have no power of veto. He and the council will make the laws. They will also have the authority to elect the city clerk and to fix his salary.

"The city manager will hold office for an indefinite term and can be dismissed by council at any time provided the reasons for dismissal are recorded in the minutes of the council and a hearing is given him if he so requests.

"The city manager will appoint the city solicitor, or city attorney, but such appointment must be confirmed by council.

"No one can be both the city manager and the member of the city council at the same time.

"The City Manager Plan can be discontinued by the vote of the people at an election requested in the same way as was the election which was called to adopt the plan. The only restriction is that such an election can not be held before the plan has been in effect three years.

"The success or failure of the city manager form of government depends entirely upon the capability of the one chosen to be the manager. I understand that this bill is not a popular one in most of the 3rd class cities for reasons not entirely made clear to me.

"We could guarantee good local government under our present system if the responsible citizens of our community would support capable and respectable local men at election time. And I mean by this, to support them actively. We should not be afraid, for business reasons, to speak out for those we desire to see in public office.

In short I personally don't think there is something the matter with our form of government. The fault lies with us as voters or as citizens. If we try to keep ourselves above the level of politics then it shouldn't be surprising if politics suffers.

"Although changes in our well founded forms of government, on the national as well as the local level, do not appeal to me personally, I will do all I can to promote and to support the bill I have outlined above if you, the registered voters of New Castle, so desire it."

Reveal State Facts Shown By 1950 Census Figures

Questions often asked, or wondered about, concerning the distribution of the population of the state of Pennsylvania, can now be answered.

The preliminary figures, based on the 1950 census, were released today by Roy V. Peel, director, Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.

One question that has always aroused people's curiosity is, "How many people in the State are married?" Here is the answer to that question and to a few more that have been wondered about. Of the population 14 years of age and over, 5,195,000, or 65 per cent, are married. Nine per cent, a rather high proportion, are sharing the living quarters of others.

Reflecting the higher birth rates of recent years and the decrease in infant mortality, the 1950 census figures show that there were, in 1950, 1,949,000 pupils between the ages of five and 24 (excluding those attending kindergarten) enrolled in school.

Another fact of interest to many is the proportion of the male population as compared to the female population in the state. The census shows that it was just about equally divided between the male and the female; 99.6 males for every 100 females.

Most people in Pennsylvania are city dwellers. Only 3 out of every 10 persons in the state were living in rural areas at the time of the census. About 70 per cent of the population was to be found in the cities and towns.

There was little change in the size of the labor force despite an increase of over half a million in the total population. The total number in labor force, whether employed, unemployed or in the armed forces, increased from 3,986,000 in the 1940 census to 4,172,000 in the 1950 census. Income of average families in Pennsylvania were, for the most part, $3,135 a year in 1949.

The hardness of substances can be tested roughly by seeing which of the two will more readily scratch the other.

POPULATION
MADRID—(INS)—The steadily increasing population of Madrid has now reached a total of 1,413,264, according to city officials. This represents an increase of nearly 50 per cent in the last decade.

MRS. WARNATH AT EAST BROOK CLUB

Mrs. O. J. Warnath captivated the members of the East Brook Garden club with her discussion on Honolulu, Hawaii, when the group met at the East Brook Methodist church Tuesday evening.

The members entertained their husbands and families at a delicious tureen dinner at the church, with the social committee in charge of the arrangements. Following the dinner, Mrs. Warnath showed pictures of her recent trip to Honolulu and points of interest in the islands. She discussed the fact that there are no snakes on the islands, not even in the mountains, and also no mosquitoes or flies. There are one thousand different plants and flowering shrubs of which ninety percent are native and will not thrive in other countries. Mrs. Warnath concluded her interesting talk with a display of articles she had brought home from the islands. Guests of the evening were Mrs.

Warnath, Mrs. A. L. Gardner, and George Zemiski. The next meeting will be held April 24 at the home of Mrs. Edna Kennedy.

Rackets Local, Says Sprigle

Tells Volant Lions About Conditions

"Rackets are a local problem. They cannot exist in any town or city in the United States for twenty-four hours without the knowledge and connivance of crooked local officials," Ray Sprigle, Pittsburgh newspaper man told the meeting of the Volant Lions' club Tuesday night.

Mr. Sprigle was the principal speaker at the annual Farmers' Night of the club, the dinner meeting being held in the Volant Methodist church.

Not National

"The rackets are not national," said Sprigle, "for they have to operate locally, just as do grocery and hardware stores. They do not go into business until the fix is in with local officials. And any time any local officials want to clean out the rackets in their city they can do it overnight."

"I despise racketeers next to Communists. I despise them for they are crooks and thugs and through their vicious activities help to break down the moral fibre of a community."

"We have some people who believe the way to stop racket gambling is to legalize gambling. Why not legalize crap shooting, the use of narcotics and murder itself? Where you find legalized gambling as you do in Nevada you find it is operated by ex-burglars, crooks, and bums. Legalizing gambling in no way to improve a community or a state, it is a certain way to lower the civic morals of them."

Present for the meeting was one of the largest crowds the Volant Lions' club has had. Elmer Brown acted as president and called upon each member to introduce his guests.

Sunset Four

A musical feature was the singing of the Sunset Four, a male quartet from Grove City. The quartet had the good judgment to sing a lot of the old time harmony numbers and sang them in a way that had the crowd begging for more.

Ellis Hillard, chairman of the program committee was in charge of the program.

The dinner, served by the women of the Volant Methodist church was up to the usual high standard of their dinners.

SOUTH KOREANS MAKE ADVANCE IN EAST

area directly north of Uijongbu the United Nations advance toward the controversial 38th Parallel continued against only "light resistance."

The Eighth Army's nightly bulletin said that elsewhere along the front only "scattered" resistance was encountered as the United Nations troops punched out further "limited" advances Wednesday.

1,000 Casualties
The communists credited the UN ground forces with inflicting 1,000 casualties on the Red invaders in Tuesday's fighting.

An additional 280 Reds killed or wounded on Wednesday were claimed by U.S. Fifth Air Force pilots who flew 400 sorties during the day, 200 of them in close support of the UN ground units.

It said there were no new reports from the Republic of Korea (ROK) troops driving up the east coast. The ROK army command earlier had announced that these forces rammed six or more miles above Parallel 38 after capturing four towns in Communist North Korea.

Yangyang, Kapyong and Chongok were seized Tuesday after the capture of Yonpo the day before by the ROK troops, pressing a four-day-old advance up the east coastal flank.

Yangyang Taken
Most important of these towns is Yangyang, a junction one mile inland from the sea of Japan coast and straddling the coastal railway artery leading up to the big Communist port of Wonsan. The latter city has been under continuous Allied naval shelling for more than a month.

Yangyang is five miles north of Parallel 39. Yapyong and Chongok lie six miles above the pre-war dividing line between South and North Korea. The previously captured hamlet of Yonpo is three miles north of the artificial border.

Eleven miles inland from the east coast, another ROK column captured Sorin, a mile and a half south of the parallel.

On the opposite side of the peninsula, American tank-infantry forces in the "Iron" on three Chinese Red battalions trapped northeast of Uijongbu, above Seoul.

Probing Counter-Attacks
North of Uijongbu, pre-dawn Communist probing counter-attacks were thrown back as the U.S. Eighth Army's UN columns moved methodically northward to positions seven to ten miles below Parallel 38 by Wednesday morning.

American field commanders said a full division of Red China's 26th Army Corps has been smashed above Uijongbu. The rest of the enemy 26th Army, which had been thrown into the sector as a fresh unit only last week, was backing up toward the 38th Parallel.

Above Munsan, the area northwest of Korea's liberated capital of Seoul, four North Korean divisions were arrayed along the Imjin river. These units, aggregating perhaps 20,000 to 40,000 troops, were straddling Korea's foremost rail-highway route which runs up to the Communist capital of Pyongyang.

They represented the only serious remaining obstacle to the UN advance on the western front toward the parallel boundary line.

Asks Support From Step-Son

Woman Claims
Contract Broken

Mrs. Francesca Juliano asks the courts of Lawrence county to require her stepson, Frank R. Juliano, to provide her with support under the terms of a contract he has violated.

She has filed an equity suit reciting the facts leading up to the taking over of property of her and her husband by the son of her husband by a former marriage.

Mrs. Juliano claims that she and her husband owned a building on Croton avenue in which they kept a store. On April 9, 1946, a contract was drawn up in which the store and building were turned over to Frank Juliano in return for which he was to provide support for the father and step-mother for their lives.

Frank R. Juliano, it is charged, later sold the grocery store stock, rented the building and later sold it. Since the death of the father it is charged he has not contributed to the support of his step-mother. A receiver is asked and an accounting.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Cravings Luring Pregnancy

On several occasions after they had retired young Alice Thorne, who was expecting her first baby, asked her husband to run down to the refrigerator and bring her a bowl of ice cubes. "I know it's silly," she said, "but I have a craving to chew ice."

We hear from our parents or grandparents that strawberries in winter were another one of these cravings that "expecting" mothers sometimes had. And there are all sorts of other such things.

It's not entirely clear just how much of a physical basis these cravings have and how much of it is psychological. Surely, though, in part it is likely to be a way of letting husbands know that wives need some special attention and consideration during this time. We human beings are interesting creatures and even without quite knowing what we are doing, we seek for attentions that we need.

Of course, the important thing is that pregnancy should be an experience in which both prospective mother and father share. More and more, young husbands realize how important it is to give their wives emotional support during the months just before the child is to be born. Whether it is indulging some of the cravings or showing interest and concern in other ways, we can be sure that thoughtful attentions will be appreciated.

Police said Pittsburgh authorities have been seeking Harbino since January, 1950, after he escaped from a deputy sheriff taking him to jail. Police said Harbino had been indicted for burglary and was wanted for questioning in connection with a murder.

Union Chorus Sings For Lions

Special Appeal For Red Cross Is Made

Union high school's chorus, 70 strong, under the direction of James W. James, director, presented a group of numbers which were beautifully executed and well received, at the weekly luncheon meeting of the New Castle Lions club in The Castleton Tuesday noon.

The work of the chorus was outstanding for such a large group and reflects considerable credit on the able direction of Mr. James, who is completing his first year at the school.

Prior to the presentation of the choral numbers, Miss Phyllis Phillips, mezzo-soprano, who won the county contest in this event, presented two lovely numbers, accompanied by Lincoln Hartford.

Urges Red Cross Support

Charles Kelso also sang a bass solo accompaniment to a choral number presented later. The appearance of the chorus was made possible by Lion J. Arthur Turek, supervising principal of the Union township schools.

Considerable business was transacted by the club during the business meeting at the close of lunch. President Harry Helmick read a telegram from R. Roy Keaton, director general of Lions International, recommending that the club cooperate wholeheartedly in the Red Cross drive which is now under way here, in which it was pointed out that vital Red Cross services to the armed forces depend on over-subscription in the 1951 campaign.

It was also stated that the present campaign goal was based on services to a force of 2,500,000 men last November, which goal does not include sufficient funds to discharge properly Red Cross responsibilities to a military force of 3,500,000 now authorized.

N. N. Jaquish, campaign chairman for the county, who is a member of New Castle Lions, stated that 74 per cent of the county total has been raised, and that the last 36 per cent will be the most difficult to obtain. He urged the club members to give every support possible to the effort.

Annual Ball Planned
Chairman Russell B. Canan of the Green Pennant drive in the schools, announced that George Martin has been named chairman of the Green Pennant effort in the city schools.

It was announced by Tail Twister Charles Lumley that the annual Tail Twister's ball has been arranged for Saturday evening, April 21, and tickets were distributed to the members for this event.

Membership awards were presented to N. N. Jaquish, J. Arthur Turek, Arthur W. Meek, Dr. W. E. Flannery and Loy Patterson for having secured new members during the month of January, which is the birth month of Melvin Jones, founder of Lions International. President Harry Helmick also received an award because the club secured five memberships during this period.

It was announced that there would be no meeting next Tuesday because of the district meeting of Lions, which will take place in the Cathedral on Wednesday evening of next week.

CLEVELAND, March 28.—(INS)—The army's first new postwar tank, the Walker Bulldog, rolled off the production line of General Motors' Cadillac division plant at Cleveland airport Tuesday, three months ahead of schedule.

The tank, designed as the T-41, was put through its paces by army Undersecretary Archibald S. Alexander while scores of army and newsmen watched.

Alexander described the 26-ton tank as having "excellent maneuverability, speed and the other characteristics needed in a light tank," and said it "probably is the best, light tank in the world today."

The T-41, named in honor of Gen. Walton H. Walker, who was killed in Korea, has a new-type, high muzzle-velocity 76 MM. gun and has a speed of about 40 miles an hour.

Senate Crime Probers Study Facts Revealed

By FRANK B. ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Senate crime committee on Tuesday ended its sensational public hearings with Treasury department officials promising a crackdown on tax evasion and narcotics trafficking by underworld figures. The group headed by Sen. Kefauver (D) Tenn., now goes behind closed doors to begin the study of anti-crime legislation to be proposed to Congress.

As the public sessions ended, there was an exchange of views among the five members on extending the life of the committee, which is to expire next Saturday.

Sens. O'Connor (D) Md.; Tobey (R), N. H., and Wiley (R) Wis., called for continuing the committee. Sen. Hunt (D) Wyo., supported Kefauver's view that a commission should be set up to continue the work.

The highlight of Tuesday's testimony by Treasury officials was Narcotics Bureau Chief Harry J. Anslinger's statement that the Chinese reds have dumped a tremendous amount of opium on the world market.

For Waste Paper Drive

At their headquarters on North Liberty street, the Seventh Ward Civic club gathered on Tuesday for a dinner meeting. President Fred McLure was in charge.

There was a discussion regarding the grounding of antenna for television apparatus, and the president read the state code on the subject. It was decided to refer the matter to council for their consideration. Bill Weitz, scoutmaster of the ward Boy Scout troop No. 4, gave a report on the scouts Easter camp, and that there were 22 boys in attendance who enjoyed themselves despite some cold weather that prevailed.

Manning Weller, chairman, reported that all arrangements had been made for the waste paper and magazine drive scheduled for collection on Wednesday, April 18, in the ward. He has appointed Joe Weller in charge of advertising. Bill Weitz will take care of scheduling and routing trucks for collection. E. N. Ubry will have charge of transportation. Ralph Higgins will look after the weighing. Manning has arranged that a house at 7 West Cherry street, the Rainey property, is available in the meantime for stocking waste paper and old magazines from 3:30 to 5 p. m. for five days, and all day Saturday. Those desiring special pickups of waste paper will please call 'phones 2039 2038 or 2828.

The steering committee decided to renew insurance for another year to cover any liability that might occur at Fun Night sessions at Mahoning school.

E. N. Ubry stated that city employees were on hand Tuesday working on dirt streets, filling bad holes and much improvement was noted.

At the next meeting Tuesday, April 3, Ray Horchler will give a report of his survey of the ward.

of social committee for April 24 meeting, with her aides.

Various games were the pastime of the evening. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. Lila Thayer.

Parsonage To Be Inspected

'Open House' At First U.P. Parsonage Is Set For Thursday

Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Mayo, pastor, and wife, and members of the board of trustees of First U. P. church combine to extend a cordial invitation to all members and friends of the congregation to attend the parsonage open house Thursday, March 29, with visiting hours from two to three o'clock in the afternoon and in the evening from seven to ten o'clock.

Work upon the $25,000 structure, next to the church on Glenmore boulevard, was begun late last spring and completed in time for occupancy by the minister and his family early in December. When the family moved into their new manse members of the Men's Club of the church sponsored the moving. In less than three hours, during a heavy snowstorm, they successfully moved the complete furnishings of the house from the old residence on Wilwood avenue to the new residence on Glenmore boulevard.

Gifts for the Parsonage

Classes and individuals within the church have made presentations of gifts for the parsonage, which have included among others: carpeting by interested church members, drapes by the Ladies' Aid and a large mirror over the mantel by the Men's club.

The committee responsible for planning details of the open house is composed of the wives of the trustees, Mrs. W. L. Belknap, Mrs. R. A. Cooper, Mrs. H. C. Dinsmore, Mrs. J. G. Rudolph and Mrs. F. W. Sontum, with Mrs. Sontum as chairman.

This committee in co-operation with the Ladies' Aid will serve refreshments to all who visit the parsonage during visiting hours. Wives of the elders will pour during the afternoon and evening hours, and the deaconesses of the congregation will assume the responsibility for registration in the guest book.

Chairman of the building committee throughout the construction of the parsonage was C. M. McNickle. The contractor for the building was J. Clyde Gilfillan, one of the elders of the congregation. Members of the board of trustees, Ralph Cooper, president; W. L. Belknap, H. C. Dinsmore, T. C. Hartman, J. G. Rudolph and F. W. Sontum, will be present throughout the afternoon and evening hours to conduct visitors, members and friends of the congregation through the parsonage.

Casey Refuses To Give Names Of Associates

(BULLETIN) WASHINGTON, March 28.—(INS)—Ex-Rep. Joseph E. Casey (D) Mass., refused today to tell Senate "influence" probes names of stockholders and other details about a company which made a huge profit on the purchase of surplus government tankers.

Casey told the Fulbright subcommittee that its demand for information on the ships dealt went "beyond the scope of the committee's authority."

He offered, however, to "cooperate fully" with any Congressional committee "empowered to investigate maritime activities." Casey declared that supreme court decisions make it clear that any attempt by Sen. Fulbright (D) Ark., and his committee to compel the company involved—American Overseas Tanker Corp.—to produce its records "is unlawful."

Sumner Welles Charges Foreign Policy Errors

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—(INS)—Sumner Welles charged today that errors in American foreign policy since 1945 are partly responsible for the change in Russian policy which has resulted in the threat of a third world war.

The undersecretary of state under President Franklin D. Roosevelt placed the major blame for these errors squarely on President Truman and former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes.

Gravest Errors
Welles said two of the gravest errors were the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Czechoslovakia in May 1945, and failure to insure unimpeded access to Berlin from the west.

Welles declared in the current Saturday Evening Post that American and British representatives would have arrived at the historic Potsdam conference "with far greater" bargaining power had these positions been maintained.

"From that time on," Welles wrote, "all the Western Allies could do to procure the execution in spirit as well as in letter of the Yalta agreements relating to the establishment of free and democratic governments in Eastern Europe was necessarily limited to the dispatch of mere appeals and remonstrances."

Another Major Error
Another major error, Welles said, was the failure of President Truman to obtain from Stalin at Potsdam an agreement upon the major provisions of the peace treaties ultimately to be negotiated with a new German government.

The Russians, Welles declared, are firmly convinced that they can control the whole of Europe once they get the German people on their side.

"Consequently," he added, "nothing could have been more shortsighted than . . . to leave Potsdam without getting from Russia an accord that would give the west satisfactory assurances that Germany would not be drawn into the Soviet orbit."

With the exception of Admiral Leahy, in a military sphere, Welles criticized those who accompanied President Truman to Potsdam.

"None of his close advisors, and least of all his secretary of state, James F. Byrnes," Welles claimed, "possessed either knowledge, understanding or experience in foreign relations."

"As a result," he concluded, "Potsdam marked the beginning of the rapid deterioration in American political and military influence that has continued unchecked until this year of 1951."

Welles branded Byrnes' "Mission to Moscow" in the autumn of 1945 "one of the most far reaching errors" by this government.

Byrnes' agreements with Stalin, he said, "were to no small extent responsible for the rapid consolidation of Russia's control over Eastern Europe and for the equally rapid growth of Russian prestige in the rest of Europe."

Tiny Tot Circus At Township School

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(INS)—St. Louis betting Commissioner James J. Carroll was charged today with 26 violations of the income tax laws for failing to report $52,000 in "pay offs" and other payments made in connection with his gambling business.

Internal Revenue officials said the money was paid to "betting customers" and Western Union employees.

The charges were filed in Kansas City, Mo., by U. S. Attorney Sam M. Wear and a warrant was issued immediately for Carroll's arrest.

The port of San Francisco was discovered in 1759 by Spaniards commanded by Don Gaspare de Portula.

British Fliers In Korea Report Narrow Escapes

ABOARD HMS THESEUS IN KOREAN WATERS, March 28.—(INS)—Lt. D. E. Johnson, RN, of Spaxton near Bridgewater, Somerset, the senior observer aboard this British light fleet carrier operating in the Yellow sea off Korea, has added another souvenir to his collection.

It is a slim enemy bullet which entered the cockpit of his aircraft and passed so close to his body that it seared the straps of his parachute harness.

"We were flying low," he said. "And it must have been a million to one chance shot from an enemy rifle."

On another strike flak punched a large hole in the wing of an aircraft piloted by Lt. D. L. James of Plymouth. He managed to land on a friendly airstrip where he and his observer were welcomed by American troops.

No Orthodox Landing

A breath taking landing was made by pilot R. H. Johnson of Portofello, Scotland, when he returned to the carrier with engine trouble. Johnson closed the ship at 4,000 feet. He had no time to make an orthodox landing with his falling engine. So he dived, flattened out, and glided on the carrier dropping his wheels at the very last moment.

Eyewitnesses said he literally dropped out of the skies on to the deck.

Last week Theseus pilots recorded 339 sorties. Bridges, railways, barracks and tanks were among the military targets destroyed and damaged behind the enemy lines.

In one attack on a tunnel which hid enemy troops and war material, a newcomer to the Theseus team, commissioned pilot G. A. Andrews of Eastham, London, scored a bulls eye. His bombs dropped in the tunnel mouth, exploded, and completely blocked it.

Mystery Seizure Of Three Japanese Fishing Vessels

SHIMONOSEKI, Japan, March 28.—Mysterious seizure of three Japanese fishing vessels in raids by unidentified craft in the East China sea between Japan and the Asiatic mainland was reported today.

The Shimonoseki fishery wireless office said it had intercepted a radio message from the Taiyo Maru 279-tons, reporting that it was in the process of being captured by a 300-ton vessel.

The distress signal said the ship making the seizure apparently was manned by South Koreans. The Taiyo Maru carried a crew of 20.

More than an hour later, another Japanese fishing vessel, the 67-ton Sumiyoshi Maru, reported it had been captured by a "mysterious ship" that was escorting its prize toward Pusan, South Korea.

The third ship, identified as the 65-ton Yamada Maru, radioed it had been "captured by a ship and a junk" and was being taken to Shanghai.

Rookie Hatfield Ticketed As Real McCoy By Bosox

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

SARASOTA, March 28.—He's not feudin', fussin' and fightin' for a varsity job although he is a Hatfield.

Somewhat of the real McCoy type, Fred Hatfield just doesn't have a chance in the world of breaking into the Red Sox lineup this year although he's the hottest rookie prospect in the Bosox camp.

But he's ticketed for future stardom and manager Steve O'Neill himself plans to carry the youngster as a reserve infielder.

Even the Boston writers—and there are enough of them around with the Bosox—go overboard for this guy.

A glove man, he has put on several demonstrations of infield play which keep the writers at the practice field and bring out applause from the goody crowds which watch the gold-plated club work out.

A paratrooper in the army, with 21 jumps to his credit, young Hatfield knows he has a tough row to hoe to make good but he is willing to sit on the bench and "help 'em along with some old-fashioned spirit."

He can play most any infield post, but third base is where he shines. And we do mean "shine."

He's up from Birmingham, in the Southern Association, and there he did just what he did with all other minor league clubs he has been with—made the all-star team.

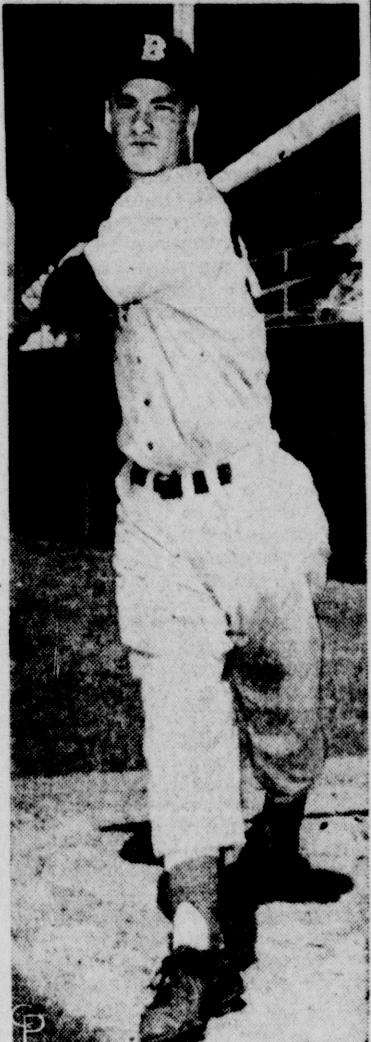

While not known for his prowess with the bat, Hatfield did belt 27 homers and drive in 101 runs while hitting an even .300 with the Barons.

He came up from sandlot and Legion baseball to the minors, being signed to a Red Sox contract by Herb Pennock.

He started with Greenboro in the Piedmont league and after his army service of 39 months he went with Roanoke in 1946, then Scranton, Louisville, Lynn, Mass., and finally Birmingham. He's been with the Barons the last two years.

Born at Lanet, Ala., in 1925, Hatfield never saw his father. Shortly after birth his father, a sheriff in Clay county, Alabama, disappeared mysteriously. No trace of him could be found and authorities theorized there was foul play connected with the man's disappearance.

He was raised by his mother, who was a textile worker. He met his wife while teaching paratroopers at Fort Benning, Ga., and when both of them went to Europe with their respective outfits they were married there. The ceremony was performed at Wiesbaden, Germany, and the couple honeymooned in Switzerland.

Hatfield has completed a physical education major at Alabama State Teachers college and officiates in both football and basketball in the off season. He hopes to become a regular member of the Southeastern Conference league as a referee this year.

Away from baseball Hatfield likes to fish and hunt and play pool.

That tough old game of golf isn't tough enough the way it is, so they are playing it at night now on the coast. This may come as a wonderful innovation to the professionals and the real standouts among the amateurs, but it will be some time before it catches on with the kind of golfers most of us know.

Toronto-Boston Start NHL Title Series Tonight

(By International News Service)

The Toronto Maple Leafs and Boston Bruins start their chase for the National Hockey League playoff championship tonight.

With good reason, the Leafs are a 2 to 1 favorite in the first game of the best-of-seven semi-final playoff.

Toronto is playing on its home ice and Boston failed to win one game in seven appearances there during the regular season.

Over in Detroit, the Montreal Canadiens and the Red Wings are resting before taking up the battle again tomorrow night.

Bradley-Wyoming Win Tourney Games

PEORIA, Ill., March 28.—(INS)—Favored Bradley clung tenaciously to a 75-71 lead in the closing seconds of play Tuesday night to defeat a battling Western Kentucky team in the second game of the national campus basketball tournament at Peoria.

Wyoming routed Duquesne 78 to 61 in the first game and will meet Bradley in Friday's semi-finals.

Saddler Kayos Salas In Sixth

LOS ANGELES, March 28.—(INS)—World featherweight champion Sandy Saddler of New York made it look easy last night in scoring a sixth round TKO over Lauro Salas, California featherweight champ, in a non-title go at Los Angeles Olympic auditorium.

Saddler used his favorite weapon, a solid left jab, to score his second straight TKO over the Monterrey, Mexico, scrapper. In Cleveland last year Saddler scored a TKO win over Salas in the ninth round.

National Football Pro Card Discussed

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—(INS)—The 1951 National Football league schedule was still an open issue today despite a domino session staged by club owners and commissioner Bert Bell.

Dominoes wrapped in the colors of each of the 12 teams were moved on a board marked with playing dates yesterday, but no solution was reached.

Bell said he has three schedules worked out and will present these when the owners have exhausted their own propositions.

Knickerbockers To Meet Syracuse

NEW YORK, March 28.—(INS)—The New York Knickerbockers and the Syracuse Nationals begin their semi-final Eastern Division playoff tonight in the National Basketball Association.

The best-of-five series will be inaugurated at Madison Square Garden.

The Knicks eliminated Boston while Syracuse ousted Philadelphia in the first round playoffs.

The Western semi-final playoffs between Minneapolis and Rochester begin in Minneapolis tomorrow.

Shoulder Injury Reported By Pep

TAMPA, Fla., March 28.—(INS)—Chances for a championship match between featherweight Willie Pep and titleholder Sandy Saddler are dim today following Pep's announcement that he re-injured his shoulder in Monday night's win over Pat Iacobucci.

Pep's left shoulder is said to be the one giving the trouble—the same one that went bad in the fight with Saddler and cost Willie the crown.

NEW TIRE

AKRON, O.—(INS)—A new "high flotation" tire designed to keep military vehicles from bogging down in mud or sand will soon be standard equipment on U. S. Army tactical trucks. According to J. E. # Kentucky First Three-Time Basketball Champions In NCAA History

Hand Kansas State 68-58 Touncing At Minneapolis

By KEN OPSTEIN
(International News Service Staff Writer)

MINNEAPOLIS, March 28.—Kentucky is the NCAA's first three-time basketball champion today but to coach Adolph Rupp the nicest part of the title victory over Kansas State is that all his players will be back next year.

Kentucky's perennial southeastern conference champs topped K-State, 68 to 58, last night before 15,438 fans in Minneapolis.

The triumph brought Kentucky its third national crown in the past four years. It was the southerners' 32nd victory in 34 games and they could thank Cliff Hagan for the all-important win.

Hagan Sparks Kentucky

Hagan dragged himself out of a sick bed to rally Kentucky to victory after his teammates trailed 20 to 13 about midway in the first half.

The husky forward had been given a shot of penicillin and sent to bed Monday with a fever and a slight case of flu. But last night he made K-State sick in 16 minutes.

Hagan scored five field goals on six shots for 10 points during his short performance. His shooting was only part of the story, however.

Coach Rupp, in acclaiming the 20-year-old Cinderella man, said: "Hagan gave us the inspiration we needed to win. I can't say too many nice things about him."

Spivey Gets 22

Rupp also praised seven-foot Billy Spivey. The giant from Macon, Ga., led all scorers with 22 points and dominated the backboards, grabbing 21 of Kentucky's rebounds.

The veteran coach also managed to get in a good word for Shelby Linville, Bobby Watson, Skippy Whitaker and Frank Ramsey.

These four players, along with Hagan and Spivey, will be in uniform for Kentucky next season if Uncle Sam doesn't put an Army uniform on them.

Illinois captured third place in the tourney by whipping Oklahoma A & M, 61 to 46, in the opener.

Canadiens Defeat Red Wings, 3 To 2

DETROIT, March 28.—(INS)—The Montreal Canadiens outlasted the Detroit Red Wings, 3 to 2, in the first game of their Stanley cup playoff series in a marathon game went into four overtime periods.

Montreal forward Maurice Richard scored the winning goal in 1:09 of the final overtime period, ending one of the most grueling contests in Stanley cup history.

Collins died Sunday at the age of 63 of heart disease.

Coaches Edge Officials, 59-57

Meriwell Finish Evens Series

Lawrence county high school coaches came from way behind Tuesday night at the New Wilmington Community House to edge the county cage officials 59-57 in a benefit game for the New Wilmington baseball team.

Franny Webster, Mt. Jackson high school coach, pulled a Frank Meriwell as he swished one from over half the length of the floor as the gun went off to give the coaches the verdict.

The officials led all the way until the final 30 seconds when the coaches tied it up and went on to win. The Blind Robins led 19-9 at the end of the first quarter and 51-37 at the end of the third period.

Loss of "Pop" Adams on personals in the third quarter left the officials' chances of a win.

The officials had too much pep for the master minds in the early stages of the game but slowed down in the latter part. Alex Ruebeck and "Rags" Gennock paced the whistle tooters in scoring.

Webster led both teams with 21 points, and hit on nine out of nine fouls, without touching the rim.

In the preliminary game the Rose Avenue Red Devils defeated the New Wilmington Whiz Kids 33-29.

Stockholders To Name Directors For New Castle Indians Tonight

New Castle baseball fans can rest assured of seeing a strong class C Middle Atlantic league this summer and the New Castle Indians will be in the thick of the pennant fight.

Tonight at 8 o'clock President Al Scarazzo will conduct an annual board of directors election at the Hotel New Penn and indications are that a board of 20 prominent citizens will be named.

The former board of nine men was found inadequate to handle the vast amount of details and for that reason it is being raised to 20. The men who served last year did a great job against super-human odds.

Seek Hitting Power

Plans are under way to give New Castle the kind of baseball the town is entitled to. Playing manager Al Milnar will gather a group of hitters this year, something that was lacking last year as the Senators finished in fourth place mainly due to lack of batting power.

The Cleveland Indians have promised a lot of help this year in building a creditable club. Already they have assigned Ted Toles and Rudy Johnston, a couple of negro stars, here. More help will be obtained as manager Milnar attends the Cleveland farm club workouts at Daytona Beach next week.

Horne-Zedalis Signed

Bill Horne and Stan Zedalis are the only two off the 1950 club already in the fold. It is expected that Bernie Rossmann and Frank Wagner will fall in line in a short while. So far George Eikenberg has not changed his original request for $1,000 to sign a contract. Steve Magula is expected back this year, adding a lot of hitting strength.

Of the five players recently bought from Johnston only Ciske and Butler are ready to report here. Kowalski and Kapusta want to think it over and have not given the local club a definite answer. Lavigne has not been heard from.

It behooves every stockholder to attend this session at the Hotel New Penn tonight and cast their ballots. The Indians belong to New Castle let's give them our support.

Diamond Dust

(By International News Service)

The Cleveland Indians are laying claim to the title of the hottest team on the Grapefruit Circuit.

Al Lopez warriors, who fattened up their spring averages with double figure victories on the Pacific coast, continued their outstanding stickwork yesterday by blasting the St. Louis Browns, 17 to 7.

Home runs by Harry Simpson, Ray Boone, Jim Heagan and Al Rosen highlighted a 20-hit Cleveland attack.

Cal Abrams' single drove home the winning run in the thirteenth inning as the Brooklyn Dodgers topped the Philadelphia Athletics in another slugfest, 10 to 9.

Two triples by Ted Kluszewski paced the Cincinnati Reds to a 7 to 6 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. The big first baseman accounted for three of his team's runs.

Rookie Tom Morgan and Joe Ostrowski combined to pitch New York Yankees to a 4 to 0 three-hit shutout win over the Chicago White Sox.

Another rookie, Charley Maxwell, paced the Boston Red Sox to a 5 to 1 triumph over the Detroit Tigers. The 24-year-old outfielder from Western Michigan College drove home the winning run with a triple in the ninth.

In other games, the New York Giants walloped the Washington Senators, 10 to 4, the Boston Braves topped the St. Louis Cardinals, 6 to 3, and the Chicago Cubs edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7 to 6.

Hornets Need Win Tonight

(By International News Service)

The Pittsburgh Hornets get their chance tonight to join the Cleveland Barons and Hershey Bears as winners of their series in the American league playoffs.

If the Hornets can whip Springfield for the third straight time tonight, they will tangle with Hershey in the best of five semi-final series.

Winner of that series would then take on Cleveland in a best of seven series for the league's Calder cup trophy.

Hershey knocked out Indianapolis in three straight and Cleveland took care of Buffalo in four straight.

Chicago Cubs Trim Pirates

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., March 28.—(INS)—A six-run first inning enabled the Chicago Cubs to get out front and stay there for a 7-6 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday in San Bernardino.

The Cubs are to play in El Centro, Cal., today in the first game of their long road trip east.

Chicago blasted Con Dempsey and Vernon Law for 14 hits and took advantage of four Pittsburgh errors to win their second straight from the Pirates.

Tarentum Seeks Basketball Coach

TARENTUM, Pa., March 28.—(INS)—Tarentum High school officials admitted today they were surprised by the resignation of Basketball Coach Dave Broffman whose team captured the Section II championship in the Class A WPIAL this season.

Broffman said yesterday he will manage a summer camp for children at Blairstown, N. J.

His club was the first to win a sectional title for Tarentum in the last 25 years and during two seasons, Broffman-coached fives won 27 of 44 games.
